SPECIAL THANKS

Hello and welcome to Untitled Theatre Production’s tenth SOLD OUT production. We are so proud of this incredible cast and crew. What a dream!

Since 2023, Untitled Theatre Productions has regularly showcased the talents of local performers and drawn nearly 10,000 audience members – proof that there is overwhelming interest and support for the arts here in Hampstead. We couldn’t do it without YOU. Your support of UTP and of the arts in Pender County is making a difference in so many ways. Our goal as a 501c3 organization is to ensure that no person will pay to participate in our shows. And thanks to Pender County Parks and Rec, our incredible sponsors as well as each of you in the audience, we’ve been able to continue to uphold that promise. And, we fully plan to continue...

Next up for UTP... we are proud to bring you FREAKY FRIDAY in October and Elf Jr. in December!!

We continue to dream big — with the hopes that someday (soon) we can build our own community arts center in Pender County. We have started offering classes and this summer is our second year for camp. The sky’s the limit for Untitled Theatre Productions, and we are so excited and grateful that you are all along for the ride.

Thank you all for your continued support. We are building this....TOGETHER!!

Enjoy the show!! - Emily and Steve
